Letter from our Associational Mission Strategist, Jeff Hoffman

February often brings to mind the theme of love. To accurately define love, it is necessary to look to God’s word. One of my favorite stories in the Bible is a fishing story that ends with a commission to love. This fishing trip begins on the occasion of Jesus’ third time appearing to His disciples after He has risen from the dead and before His ascension. Peter, Nathaniel, Thomas, James and John, and two more disciples have been fishing all night long. They have caught absolutely nothing, not one fish. I can relate to that! Early the next morning, they had an encounter with Jesus as He told them where to fish. They listened to His instruction and caught 153 fish. So many, in fact, the net began to break from the weight of the fish. As they came to shore, they discovered Jesus had already been fishing, caught fish Himself, cleaned them, and had cooked them on the coals of an open fire by the water. As they ate breakfast together, Jesus brought up the subject of love. In the dialogue with Peter, Jesus suggests 3 things about Peter’s love. Here is what I have been taught about love that God requires. He wants us to love Him supremely.... “more than these.” He wants us to love Him openly...to express it verbally as Peter did over and over. He wants us to love Him actively...not just verbally but in action, “feed My sheep.” All this is found in John 21:1-19. My prayer for our churches is we can love Him as He has instructed us as followers of Christ. Know of my prayers this month, remembering the theme of love.

In His love,
 Bro. Jeff

Ministry Assistants Conference

April 22, 2025 9:00-3:00

Ministry assistants are called by many names: Church Administrative Assistant, Church Ministry Assistant, Church Secretary and more.

A time to gather, celebrate and invest in those serving in this unique ministry. Ministry Assistants enjoy a morning of spiritual encouragement and spend the afternoon immersed in Practical Tools & Resources to enhance ministry organization and performance. Plus, there will be a session on Personal Evangelism. The afternoon will offer opportunities for veterans and those new to this ministry role. Cost is $20 and sign up will begin soon.
