Letter from our Associational Missions Strategist, Jeff Hoffman

I am convinced of God continuing to use the church to be His instrument of bringing about His kingdom. The function of the church is to worship, witness, pray, teach, preach, minister, disciple, provide outreach, and have fellowship. Ministry is the work of the church that serves within, and missions is the work of the church that serves the needs outside the walls of the church.

I am grateful to have been a part of the church as a church member, then pastor, then the Director of Missions. I have witnessed firsthand the faithfulness of the churches through the years. I have been humbled to visit each of our churches in our three parishes that make up our association and experience this faithfulness to worship, witness, pray, disciple, teach, preach, minister, provide missions, and have fellowship. Thank you for your faithfulness and continuing to commit to our unified effort to share the message of Christ here at home and around the world.

As a reminder, the benefits of coming together as a group of unified churches are: we can do more together for His kingdom than we can separately; We provide accountability for Biblical doctrine and practice; We also provide encouragement for each other; and we provide much needed fellowship as we pray, laugh, serve, and minister together. All churches need this cohesiveness. Thank you for allowing me to come along side your church and pray with you and try to be here for any help I might provide. Remembering the Apostle Paul's strategy found in 1 Corinthians 9:22, "...I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some", may we too commit ourselves to this end.

As you are probably aware, my wife is seriously ill. We cherish your prayers during this time. We are uncertain of the future, but know Who holds it in His hands...we are trusting Him. Thank you for your thoughtful calls, concern and most of all you continued prayer support.

As always, know of my prayers. My greatest contribution is to pray for each pastor and church each week. Again, thank you for your prayers for me and especially for Angela.

In his love,
 Jeff Hoffman
