Letter from our Associational Missions Strategist, Jeff Hoffman

Ecclesiastes 3:1-5 says "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing." God's word reminds us that there is a season and a time for every purpose. We have beginnings and endings. As we face the seasons of our life, this reminder helps us put and keep things in perspective. Knowing and following His will is our duty. Service to the Kingdom is our goal, and the Holy Spirit is our guide. I am grateful for the conviction, correction, and the comfort the Holy Spirit gives us. It is a daily and constant process to check our direction in life. Someone said that the greatest threat to His Kingdom is our kingdom. Last night while attending a revival meeting, the evangelist said that the person that bothers us the most is not our biggest enemy, but rather the person in the mirror is our biggest enemy. This reminder should jar us to humility, repentance, and the need for restoration. These disciplines help us to be in a position to better know, understand, and be obedient to His will.

I want to thank you for the opportunity to serve you as the Associational Missions Strategist for the Webster/ Claiborne and Bienville Associations. Our merging together has proven to pull us together in our unified effort for missions and ministry. Also, the selling of the property and building have allowed us to continue a footprint of associational ministry for years to come. I am grateful to God for helping us through these last two years. I want you to know of my gratitude for your prayers, support, and kindness to Angela and me. We will keep you in our prayers in the days ahead as the churches that make up the WCB Baptist Association seek and carry out His will, in this next season.

My prayer is that God will find us faithful, upon His return. I pray we would continue to work together as we look for the second coming of Christ.

In His love,
Jeff Hoffman
