November 2026

Jeff Hoffman, Associational Missions Strategist

Jeanne Wiggins, Ministry Assistant

Romans 10:14-15 says, “How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, ‘How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!’”

The month of November is a month for thanksgiving. As we have just completed pastor appreciation in October, I want to say thank you, from one pastor to another. As a pastor I understand something of the commitment, discipline, strain, pressure, anxiety, grind, hard work, and never-ending demands of the ministry. No one can fully understand all you are going through, except Jesus Himself.

I simply want to say that I am grateful for your calling and your acceptance of that call. I have the privilege of praying for you each week. In fact, I just got off my knees calling out each pastor by name and each church in our association, thanking God for you and asking His blessing on you.

Of the arguably seven functions of the church, preaching, to me, is our biggest responsibility. To get ready to preach, then deliver the message on behalf of God is a divine collaboration that can only be successful with cooperation and relying on the Holy Spirit. Thank you for your faithful dedication to preparing and preaching His word.

Though you are not often shown appreciation, receive it when it comes. And remember, your biggest reward is not only in Heaven, it is Heaven.

My prayer is for God’s richest blessing on each of you, your family, and your church.

In His love,
Jeff Hoffman, AMS

Mission Corner

Susan Cheatwood and Sharon Willis recently spent 3 days at Huntsville Park Baptist Church in Huntsville, AL at the Annual Baptist Nursing Fellowship Summit.

While there they participated in Bible Studies, helped tag items for a silent auction, and packed hygiene bags to be given out at the health fair that Sunday.

Baptist Nursing Fellowship is looking for local professional nurses, student nurses, and others related to the medical profession to share the love of Christ. They provide health screenings and go on medical mission trips. If this sounds like something that would interest you call Sharon Willis 318-579-3795
